My name is Marilyn Hay and I am Tyler Bieber's mom. (If my son comes up with me I will introduce him) <sup>this is Tyler's older</sup> brother <sup>Bieber</sup> Brandon

April 6, 2018 - A day like no other!
And now Months like no other! Apr 6
the most agonizing day waiting and waiting and waiting to hear anything about Tyler. I felt sick to my stomach
I was hearing about fatalities, no answer on his phone, maybe he was helping others! His name not on the lists in the hospital any time I called. I was scared to call to hear again no his name is not on.

our list. I knew.... then the RCMP came + confirmed my thoughts at 0300 April 7.

My last message from Tyler was at 3 pm Apr 6 to say he was on the bus. You see Tyler would often drive on his own and I would always say why can't you go on bus. To me it was the safest. Part of me felt guilty then.

The last "I love you mom, have a great day" came 3 days earlier on my birthday April 3. My birthday will never be the same.

I am thankful that Easter weekend he chose to drive back + forth from Nipawin <sup>from calling</sup> for Games 1 + 2. <sup>who knew it was our last</sup> holiday together even if <sup>we spent</sup> a few hours.

<sup>I'm</sup> Thankful his brother came home that weekend + saw him and my daughter Candy. It was their last time seeing him.

Since Apr 6 I have had to go on medication for mood, panic attacks, restlessness, <sup>lack of sleep</sup> often feel frozen and numb and my focus, attention <sup>are</sup> poor. I feel more nervous in a vehicle and I notice semi's more.
 My sons Brandon + Brett <sup>are</sup> the same. My special needs daughter Candy sits quietly crying + says Tylers name.
 Tylers dad Terry feels the pain of losing a child. Life will never be the same <sup>for any of us.</sup> Holidays never the same.
 Tyler meant a lot to the community
 as he spent a lot of time volunteering.
 We have met so many youth that miss him terribly and have come to meet us.
 We have met them as he coached + mentored them <sup>in foot ball, basketball + flag foot ball.</sup> Some have honoured him by putting tattoo's on their bodies. <sup>we have ours</sup>
 We have met the coaches he coached with and <sup>the friends he played games with.</sup> ~~also~~ many of his co-workers.
<sup>we have met</sup>

past + present who miss him terribly and they have all been so supportive.

I miss his radio voice + listening to him in the mornings as I got ready for work. I miss his calling the Bronco games. Who knew that the triple OT game Apr 4 would be his last + probably his Best call. I miss watching his passion for the Mohawk football team. His love of sports + the love/passion he had for the New England Patriots + Tom Brady. Man, he'd be pumped they are in the "Super Bowl"! I miss him rubbing my hair + calling me short! As the days go on I vision him in my mind. I vision + think of Apr 6 as bus <sup>was</sup> driving to Nipawin. Did he know? Did he see it coming? I hope he was on his phone + never saw it. I think would he have time to be scared. Its awful! If only I could of protected him. Thats what us as parents want to do, protect our children from hurt + harm.

It kills me to think we will never see him walk through the door again or that he'll even be at a holiday with us again. <sup>It hurts me I never got to give him a final goodbye <sup>just</sup> a last I love you, drive safe,</sup> his 30 birthday is coming up Feb 9 and we have decided to go ahead + plan a celebration of Tyler and it will be difficult without him. I'm thankful his friends & family will all be there for him & us as we work thru this <sup>1st</sup>. Tyler's family & friends have lost a hard, soft hearted, big hearted, thoughtful, genuine, patient, funny, loving, empathetic & forgiving guy. We are broken. We wonder what you would think about all of this. We know... he would shake his head & say it never should of happened. + you right... it should not of. We do feel for you Mr. Sidhu, you are Tyler's age. I know he would feel for you as we feel for you. You did not intend to hurt anyone that day & you will deal with that the rest of your life as we deal with the loss of our Tyler the rest of ours.

I think of my children (your age) & I can't imagine even what your parents are going through as they watch you. I can't imagine how I'd feel as your mom Mr Sidh. They have to be suffering too, the decisions made that day & the result. Thank you for pleading guilty. ~~My~~ My family thanks you.

Changes need to happen nationally, not just provincially to truck driver training. Changes need to be made to wearing seat-belts.

Last, thank you to everyone I we know & don't know for being there for us since Apr 6. I don't know how it would be without your love and support. Love & miss you Ty! Thank you.

Since this accident I have difficulty sleeping, many depressing days and I continually question "Why, Why, Why!" On my mind I constantly wonder about his future.
